

Mary Statue

The Mary statue located at St. Brigid's Church is part of the civic gardening work done by the Lexington Field & Garden Club.

This small serene garden is robust with vinca minor, rhododendrons, astilbes, daffodils, heather, day lilies, hostas, heuchera, and irises. The two small planters beneath the statue flower with coral bells (heuchera). There is continuous blooming throughout the summer season.